

Papua New Guinea

Country in Oceania

Kai Ora / Hello and welcome to The Labanda / Teko Non profit website.

We are a small private group of Accredited professionals with a lifetime of experience involved on the ground deep within the Papua New Guinea communities.

Our vision and purpose is to help break the chain of poverty with self reliance workshops, utilising community Human Resources , to reach the wider Papua New Guinea Regions.

As a Facilitator for our members we utilise our platform and our networks , we emphasise Integrity and trust on all levels of our organisation , since 2005.

I am Madeline Holland , a Citizen of New Zealand , a Humanitarian Volunteer Aid worker ,born in Taranaki New Plymouth. I now reside North of Auckland. I am an Executive Labanda speaker for PNG , connecting people and building communities .

PNG~ "The land of Mystery"

A Country of immense cultural and biological diversity , traditional tribal villages , many with their own languages , 852 distinct languages are spoken.
